

HOCKEY NOVA SCOTIA ANNOUNCES 2008 ATHLETIC/ACADEMIC AWARDS

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Halifax, 26 August 2008 – Nine graduating students have won Hockey Nova Scotia (HNS) athletic/academic awards. Each student, a registered player or official with HNS, won the award for high level of academic achievement, exceptional hockey ability and commitment to the principles of fair play and volunteerism.

“We made our selections from a large group of outstanding individuals,” said Don Matheson, HNS president.

Recipients, all attending post-secondary institutes in the fall and receiving $1,000 each are as follows:

B.F. Lorenzetti & Associates Inc International Insurance Brokers Athletic/Academic Award: Devin Ferguson, Amherst Regional High School.

Hanson T. Dowell Athletic/Academic Award: Nicole Hansom, Dartmouth High School and Kristin Armstrong, Lockview High School.

Colin B. MacGillivray Athletic/Academic Award: Cody Alderson, Northumberland Regional High School and Miranda McMillan, Cobequid Educational Centre.

Allan Joseph Memorial Award: Ashley MacDonald, Baddeck Academy.

Citadel Halifax Hotel Athletic/Academic Award: Mark Power, C.P. Allen High School.

Tiny Titus Memorial Award: Jordan Burke, Citadel High.

John Hannah Jr. Memorial Award: Brendan Connors, Strait Area Education Recreation Centre.

Awards were distributed at each recipient’s high school graduation ceremony this past spring.
